Do you want to work in a beautiful environment with an impeccable reputation and great support/encouragement from peers and leadership? This is the way the Staff Counselors at Restoration Place Counseling (RPC) describe their place of employment!

Other positives include: a very consistent referral source – you will never lack clients; the ability to primarily manage your own schedule; the freedom to discuss faith with staff and clients; a community of supporters (the RPC Mountain Movers Club) who cover the staff and all we do here in prayer; the ability to offer excellent services at a significantly-reduced fee (our mission); and much more!

Restoration Place Counseling is a faith-based organization that blends proven psychological principles with a biblical worldview to offer counseling and support to our clients. Prior to applying, please review our Counseling Philosophy here.
