Restoration Runway 2018 will be better “TOGETHER” this year

9th Annual Non-profit signature event focuses on counselors, clients, the community, and Christ

GREENSBORO, NC—January 2, 2018—Restoration Place Counseling (RPC) is scheduled to host its 9th annual fashion show and silent auction, Restoration Runway, March 22, 2018, at the Greensboro Country Club. The 2018 Presenting Sponsor is Corporate Accommodations. This year’s theme - “TOGETHER” – is echoed in the theme song of the night, “Be the Change” by Christian pop artist, Britt Nicole: It begins with you and I; Together, we can be the change.

“There are several levels of meaning for our 2018 theme,” said Cindy Mondello, Founder/Executive Director of Restoration Place Counseling. “Obviously, as a local non-profit, we cannot accomplish our mission alone. We need the community working with us to provide significantly-discounted, professional counseling services to our clients. There is also a very sacred expression of together in the relationship of counselor and client. As a Christian counseling center, the counselors rely just as heavily on their faith in Christ and His guidance in session, as they do on their clinical skills.”

This year, proceeds from the annual event will help fund counseling sessions offered at the lowest end of RPC’s fee scale, which constitutes about 40% of the projected 8,000 sessions that will be completed in 2018. Currently, RPC places no cap on the number of clients who may receive sessions at the lowest tier.

At the event, attendees can expect another vibrant show filled with great fashion, lively music, and unexpected but exceptional talent. The reception will feature a menu of heavy hors d’oeuvres and action stations, crafted by GCC’s world-class executive chef. Guests will have opportunity to engage in the silent auction offering spectacular packages – all to benefit the mission of RPC.

Models will highlight fashions from local retailers, including Simply Meg’s, Rebecca & Co., Paparazzi, Serendipity by Celeste, the boutique at Fleet Plummer, Lane Bryant, Simply Stunning Bridal & Boutique by Diva’s, Omega Sports and Gordon’s Menswear.

Tickets are $50 (General Admission) or $80 (Group Night Out ticket) at www.bidpal.net/Together.
