Restoration Runway Fashion Show to Benefit Restoration Place Counseling
Community comes TOGETHER to add a powerful message to this year's theme

GREENSBORO, N.C. – Restoration Runway, signature event for Restoration Place Counseling (RPC), happens on Thursday, March 22, at the Greensboro Country Club. This year's theme - TOGETHER - is a testament to the benevolence of our community. From volunteers who contribute hands-on-deck wherever needed to individual and corporate sponsors who provide critical funds to keeping our doors open, our community is always ready to work together to take care of the needs of its neighbors.

"This is our 9th annual event, and I continue to be blown away by the generosity of our community," states Cindy Mondello, Founder/Executive Director of Restoration Place Counseling. In addition to financial and auction donations, RPC has received essential in-kind donations: graphic design from SFW and North Star Marketing, printing from One Source Document Solutions and The Printery, billboard PSA space from Fairway and Outdoor Signage, and photography from Aesthetic Images Photography.

"We understand the value of what we have in this community, and we know we cannot do this alone. We are so grateful that people believe in and support our mission of restoring dignity, virtue and honor to women through affordable and professional Christian counseling services," Mondello adds.

Attendees can expect another vibrant show filled with the latest fashion, lively music, and unexpected but exceptional talent. The reception will feature a menu of heavy hors d'oeuvres and action stations, crafted by GCC's world-class executive chef. Guests will have opportunity to engage in the silent auction offering spectacular package.
